The street opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out frantically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly scolds him for his misbehavior and then announces that his collar is still smeared with jam. Tom's half brother, Huckleberry Finn, tries to help Tom but Aunt Polly is determined to discipline him.

Tom goes out of the house following the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival, Huckleberry Finn, eventually discover the secret of the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and catches him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
